Treasury Explains Daily Worker Seizure Was Crackdown on 'Just Another Taxpayer'

WASHINGTON — Internal Revenue Service officials said today their crackdown on Communist party and Daily Worker offices has nothing to do with political rights or freedom of the press.

The officials stressed the seizures are strictly a federal move to collect alleged back taxes.

An Internal Revenue official here gave this explanation when asked how the seizures compared with tax treatment of the two major political parties:

The Republican and Democratic National Committees make annual reports to Congress of their assets, liabilities and expenditures. They keep accurate books and records, open to inspection. As "bona fide" non-profit organizations, they are not required to pay taxes on their gift income.

But the Communist party claimed it had no books or records and did not know what happened to money it handled. It has never filed a financial statement with Congress and has not requested a tax exempt status.

Because of this sharp contrast with actions of the other political parties, the official explained, Federal Tax Collector Donald R. Moysey for Lower Manhattan ordered the crackdown to "force the issue."

Moysey, he said, "had no alternative but to move in and find out what gives."

The Communists may be entitled to tax exemption but it is up to them to prove it, the official said. They now have the choice of paying up, taking their case to a federal appeals court, or forfeiting their property. They have 60 days to act.

The official said the status of the New York Communist newspaper, the Daily Worker, was different. The Daily Worker was filed returns and paid income tax, but there is a controversy over whether it paid the right amount.

Internal Revenue decided the newspaper owed $46,000 more than it paid. It feels the Worker was given ample chance to pay up and the only recourse remaining was to levy the assessment.

The official said this kind of procedure happens "a thousand times a week all over the United States."

"The Commies have to settle with us one way or another," he concluded. "The question of freedom of the press is not involved. It's just another taxpayer."

Cyprus Reported Getting Arms by Sneak Submarine

NICOSIA, Cyprus — Official sources admitted today that Field Marshal Sir John Harding is giving "serious consideration" to reports that Cypriot extremists are being supplied with arms by a mysterious submarine.

The reports, from a London source, appeared in local newspapers. They said British troops reported spotting strange lights at sea while patrolling the lonely east coast of Cyprus. And they claimed a captured member of extremist pro-Greek organization told security forces last week he had orders to wait for a submarine bringing arms to the island.

British authorities today warned villagers at Pheanoras, near Famagusta, that refusal to give information on last night's terrorist ambush of a British patrol would bring a heavy collective fine. Two British troops were killed and three wounded in the attack.

Kettmann, 18 Other Chiefs Discuss Plan

Central Unit To Exchange Data On Mobsters Likely

Police Chief August Kettmann left today for San Francisco where he expects to link the Palm Springs department to a proposed statewide intelligence network designed to make constantly known the location and movements of hoodlums.

He will be one of 19 chiefs of police at a conference being held here to establish such regular information exchange. Palm Springs has worked closely with Los Angeles in the past in such exchanges.

Before he left, Kettmann said he expected to pledge Palm Springs' fullest cooperation in any feasible statewide plan. Intelligence Liaison with Los Angeles aided our recent prompt pickup of Mickey Cohen here," he said, "and I am thoroughly sold on expanding the system."

The preliminary planning scheduled tomorrow calls for establishment of an information exchange on the movements and activities of mobsters, and possibly the later establishment of a central intelligence unit.

A local intelligence unit was established at the start of the past Fall season, which, working with the Los Angeles unit, has resulted in the discovery of several other known hoodlums in the Village, and their being requested to leave here.

Cities to be represented tomorrow besides Palm Springs, Los Angeles, and San Francisco, are Portland, Seattle, Denver, San Diego, Kansas City, St. Louis, Las Vegas, Reno, San Mateo, San Jose, Oakland, Sacramento, Stockton, Santa Rosa, Riverside and Phoenix.

Expert Complains $5780 Not Enough for Royal Fireworks

DALLAS, Tex. — Art Briese, fireworks expert for the State Fair of Texas, had to turn down an offer to put on a fireworks display during the Grace Kelly-Prince Rainier wedding in Monaco.

He said the budget, two million francs ($5,780), was too low to stage the display on Monaco's royal pier. At that price, Briese said, he would wind up in the red.

Arabs Invited to Tell UN What They Want Done

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — American delegates invited Israel's Arab neighbors to ask the United States today to spell out in detail what it wanted UN Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld to do in the war-threatened Middle East.

Lebanon, Syria, Jordan and Egypt were asked to speak in their own behalf in the U.S. proposal to dispatch Hammarskjöld to the eastern end of the Mediterranean to make a personal effort to relax the tension.

British and American delegates refused in advance of the security council debate this afternoon to speculate on what the outcome would be.

Israel declared in favor of the mission. Egypt also was known to be in favor of the peace-seeking trip. But other Arab nations refused to disclose their stand.

Dick Haymes' Auto Seized for Groceries

HOLLYWOOD — Singer Dick Haymes' $5000 convertible sports car has been attached by a credit bureau on grounds that he owes a $516.94 market bill.

Papers of attachment were served on Haymes yesterday at his Malibu home. The Sales Market Inc. of Encino claimed he has owed $516.94 on a grocery bill since last August.

First Victory for Ike Idea of Inspection

Secret Blueprint Under Cautious Study By Allies

LONDON — The Soviet Union has embraced President Eisenhower's "open sky" reconnaissance plan for the first time in a formal disarmament proposal, it was learned today.

An informed source said the new Soviet proposal introduced here yesterday also goes further on armaments inspection than ever before.

The United States, France and Canada were reported giving cautious study to the still secret Soviet blueprint.

The part that embraces the Eisenhower plan for mutual aerial reconnaissance is hedged by many restrictions, the informed source said.

Nevertheless, the Americans were reported somewhat heartened by the fact that the Soviets built the Eisenhower plan into a formal disarmament proposal for the first time.

B47 Stratojet Explodes Over Wichita; 3 Die

WICHITA, Kan. — A plane reported to be a B47 Stratojet exploded in the air and crashed four miles northeast of here today. Three bodies were recovered.

An eyewitness said the plane exploded, sending pieces flying "in every direction" over a quarter-mile area. The plane crashed in a pasture, missing two suburban homes by about 1000 feet.

The Office of Information Services at McConnell Air Force Base in Wichita would not confirm or deny it was one of McConnell's B47s.

Kefauver Calls GOP 'Inhumane'

PHOENIX — Sen. Estes Kefauver, campaigning for the Democratic nomination for President, said today that the "Republicans have not thought about things in humane terms."

Speaking before about 1000 students at Phoenix College, he criticized Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson, saying the secretary "is a good man, all right, but he hasn't done much for the farmer."

House Conferees Vote Cotton Support Boost

WASHINGTON — Senate-House farm bill conferees in another rebuff to the administration voted today to boost the support price for the 1956 crop cotton by an additional 1.4 cents a pound.

The conferees voted to delete from the bill an administration backed provision for changing the way of figuring cotton supports.

The provision had been included in the Senate bill. The conferees are working to reconcile differences between bills passed by the House and Senate.

The conferees yesterday ignored administration pleas to continue flexible price supports. They voted instead to restore rigid high supports at 90 per cent of parity for basic crops; also to provide a "dual parity" system which would raise dollar and cents supports for cotton, wheat, corn and peanuts.

Bad Dust Storm Turns to Snow

By UNITED PRESS

The worst dust storm of the year turned into a Wintery blast of snow, rain, and wind today.

Dusters which churned up tons of topsoil across six southwestern states appeared to be dying. But the same storm center plowed into the Midwest with heavy snow, thunderstorms, and roof-ripping winds.

The Weather Bureau predicted the new storm would charge all the way to the East Coast, bringing new snow to blizzard-plagued New England. Other Eastern areas were in for cold rains and falling temperatures.

The storm ushered in the 1955 dust storm season yesterday with raking winds across Kansas, Oklahoma, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico and Texas.

City Right to Ban Billboards Upheld

LOS ANGELES — The City has the right to ban billboards from freeways, according to a decision of the Appellate Department of the Superior Court.

City Atty. Roger Arnebergh hailed the decision, saying it would enable the city "to better protect our freeways from hazardous and unsightly billboards."

Judges Edward T. Bishop, Julius V. Pattosso and Frank G. Swain upheld the conviction of Southern Outdoor Advertising Inc. for maintaining a billboard too close to the Pasadena Freeway.

Pravda Ties Into Job of Degrading Josef Stalin

MOSCOW — The official Communist newspaper Pravda denounced Josef Stalin in a 10,000-word editorial today for his "monstrous excesses" during his later years.

The bitter attack was the first authoritative report on the present policy of degrading Stalin as outlined by Communist Party Secretary Nikita S. Khrushchev at the recent 20th party congress.

It blamed Stalin's "cult of the individual" for the excesses and said the party could not begin eliminating them until it had removed Laverenti P. Beria, the Soviet security chief who was executed for treason in 1953.

Pravda outlined the party's program of eliminating the remnants of Stalin's "cult of the individual" but said it was a big and difficult job and "there is no place for hurry and waste."

2 Groups Invite Phone Service Complaints Here

Chambers of Commerce of Palm Springs and Palm Desert today issued last minute reminders concerning the public hearing before the Public Utilities Commission in the city council chambers here April 2 and 3, on the telephone situation in the Coachella Valley.

These two Chambers of Commerce, plus those at Cathedral City and Rancho Mirage, spearheaded a drive which resulted in the public hearing.

The reminders, in the form of letters, asked that every person who has a complaint as to rates or service appear at the hearing.

"Even if you do not wish to testify, your very presence there will lend support to our efforts to get an equitable solution to a problem that is going to become worse as our area grows," Hal Kapp, president of the Palm Desert Chamber, said.

The Chambers, in their formal complaint, alleged exorbitant rates for calls between subscribers of the California Water and Telephone Company and Coachella Home Telephone and Telegraph Company, and also charged "poor and inadequate service."

The hearings, which will start at 10 a.m., will be conducted by Commissioner Rex Hardy and Examiner Manley W. Edwards.

MY DOG WHISKERS

John Hilton the desert artist recently stopped by the Fort and I happened to be in the middle of calling down my dog Whiskers for being too nationalistic. Every time a car load of my Mexican neighbors stops in front Whiskers barks like everything. John said I shouldn't feel bad because south of the border dogs bark at Americans day or night no matter how they are dressed. The cusses just seem to know we don't belong there.

Now I'm gonna make history in canine psychology. We're heading Whiskers across the border and see if he turns around and starts barking at me.

Why Congress Group Concluded There's Chaos in Army Purchasing

WASHINGTON — A congressional report on a nine-month investigation of military buying has charged:

Allegedly excessive profits on defense orders.

Tons of military equipment "lost in the mud."

Planes out of commission for lack of 25-cent parts.

Alleged political pressure on an Air Force parachute contract.

"The revelations were made in a 58-page report by the staff of the House Military Appropriations Sub-committee. Many of the cases cited occurred recently, but some involved contracts extending back five or six years to the Korean War."

Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson, called to account, told the subcommittee he was "sad and mad" about the whole vast problem of military procurement.

"I do not excuse these kinds of things if they are true," Wilson told the subcommittee in Feb. 21 testimony just made public.

Wilson insisted the armed services were now "much better organized than they were three years ago, in spite of this report."

Chairman George H. Mahon (D-Tex.) told Wilson that the Pentagon was not trying hard enough "to get more for the defense dollar."

"The profits of industry engaged in defense contracts continue to soar, and industry seems to run with too much free rein," Mahon said.

The subcommittee investigators reported misuse of funds and "glaring errors" and "chaotic conditions" in military inventories.

They said the armed services were declaring items excess at the same time they were buying more of the same and that they failed to keep proper tabs on costs and profits of defense contractors.

Some defense contractors have voluntarily returned some of their profits.

Head of San Diego FBI Office Makes Strictly Social Visit to Palm Springs

Harry G. Maynor, who nine months ago took charge of the San Diego office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, made his first visit to Palm Springs this week in an effort to become better acquainted with the territory his agents cover.

He stopped at the police department and The Desert Sun, among other places, and opened his coat here to show that he didn't have a warrant to his name, or in anyone else's.

A medium man all around, his appearance is that of average age descriptive of many 41-year-old lawyers. His is one of 52 offices employing more than 6,000 legally trained federal-level law enforcers throughout the nation.

HE HAS WORKED up, in his 20 years with the bureau, to the status of agent-in-charge. He was transferred from the head job at Phoenix, and prior to that had held similar positions in Richmond, Virginia, Buffalo and Seattle.

He attended law school in Washington, D.C., and went to agents' school in 1939. In working up, he was transferred many times, sometimes taking the wife he married before he joined the FBI and his son, Harry D. with him. She is with him today, young Harry is in law school after completing undergraduate studies at the University of Illinois.

His job, and that of the men under him, is similar to a police department's in any city, the sheriff's in the country, of state police on a state-wide basis, except that he investigates crimes which are in violation of federal laws.

FOR INSTANCE, there are federal laws against taking a car or a girl, or a girl in a car, across the state line without the car, or the girl's permission, and that's where the feds come in.

If someone steals a car and doesn't go across the state line, the police department investigates.

However, San Diego has given Maynor a couple of cases that would have ordinarily been handled by local police. Two cases of assault and battery were reported, committed on tuna clippers while at sea.

No piracy yet, though.

Swimming Class of Adult School to Start April 2

Two courses in swimming will be added to the curriculum in the Palm Springs Adult Evening School starting Monday, April 2. Starting at 7 p.m. the class for beginning swimmers will convene, to be followed at 8:30 by the class for intermediate instruction in swimming.

Long delayed until the advent of warmer evening temperatures, the courses will be taught by Miss Doris Toney, elementary teacher in the Katherine Finch School, who has had experience in teaching the Red Cross course in basic and intermediate swimming and who is an expert swimmer.

Specifically designed to meet the requirements of the State Department of Education, which limit time in the water to one and one half hours and limit class size to approximately 20 students in each class, the swimming lessons will be given in the modern heated pool at the Palm Springs High School.

Completely surrounded by building and glass enclosure, the pool is expected to be especially attractive for evening swimming instruction.

Since enrollment will be limited, prospective students are urged by principal George Manington to stop at the high school office during the evening this week or before class on April 2 in order to complete their enrollment.

County Given $1,629 for Grazing

Riverside county has been apportioned $1,629.43 as its share of federal grazing fees for the year ended June 30, 1955, according to Robert C. Kirkwood, state controller.

The county must credit the money to a fund earmarked for range improvements and for control of predatory animals.

Approximately 31.5 per cent of the nation's trucks are on farms. Another 29 per cent are in the nation's 115 most populous counties.

Miller's Honey to be Returned to Food Markets

Woodrow Miller, internationally famous beekeeper known for his "traveling bees," as told in Readers' Digest, American and other magazines, and owner of Miller's Honey Company, world's largest honey producers with main offices in Colton, is now returning his famous California and Utah honeys to the consumer market under his own label.

In addition to Miller's well-known sage, clover and orange liquid honeys, which were the former top-selling brand in this area, Miller will introduce an exclusive new product, "Miller's Creamy-Clover Pure Honey," a natural white clover honey spread creamed by a special process, developed by Miller's Honey Company.

Bill Layton has been named as broker to handle the Miller's honey line in San Bernardino, Riverside and Imperial counties.

The Bogert's, Inc., Los Angeles advertising agency, have been named as merchandising and marketing consultants to handle Miller's consumer advertising program. Local newspapers throughout Southern California will be the principal media used, with supplementary outdoor advertising.

Palm Springs Jewish Community to Start Israel Bond Drive April 15

Sunday, April 15, will be "I Day—Israel Day—in Palm Springs when the Palm Springs Jewish community will gather to inaugurate its 1956 campaign for bonds of the Israel Government."

That announcement was made today by Max A. Schireson, chairman of the Palm Springs Israel

Rond Committee.

"Since 1951," Schireson stated, "American citizens have invested more than $200,000,000 in the economic security of the State of Israel through their purchases of Israel Bonds. Today, we must do more than ever to provide the strength needed to keep the peace in Israel's part of the world. That job must be done through investment now."

Schireson stated that a committee of citizens, prominent in humanitarian work, had been organized to marshal the drive for April 15.

Hard at work to ensure the success of the "I" Day event are Henry Birns, Mrs. Charles Bonoff, S. H. Brezin, John Chernus, the Hon. William Friedman, Max Grone, Emil Laufer, A. M. Lebling, David Margolis, Jack Meis-elman, Zachary Pitts, Leib Rosen, Rabbi Leon Rosenberg, Saul Ruskin and Aaron Sternberg. Israel Bonds, which return a profit of four per cent interest, provide the major share of the investment capital being used to develop all phases of the economy of the only democracy in the Middle East, including harbors, roads, agriculture, production and mining.

The Desert Sun is an independent newspaper dedicated to truth, accuracy, and impartiality in the news; to the progress of the desert region; to the support of that which it believes to be right and to the defeat of that which it believes to be wrong.

End of an Easy-Victory Era?

As in nearly all such cases, settlement of the Westinghouse Electric Company strike raises again the perennial question: Was it worth it?

The answer usually is "no." And in this instance it would seem to be especially emphatic.

The members of the International Union of Electrical Workers who stopped work for 156 days lost almost $100,000,000 in wages — one of the most costly strike bills in industrial history.

Nor could the company crow. Its annual report said frankly that "shipments during the strike period thus far (Feb. 21) have been an estimated $250,000,000 below the total expected." Later unofficial estimates put the sum closer to $500,000,000.

The company said it managed to hold production losses to a "minimum." In strike-bound plants, shipments were delayed but there was some switching of orders to subcontractors and even competitive manufacturers.

Its salesmen worked full time, assuaging delayed customers with promises that the plants after the strike would be regeared to turn out 30 per cent more production. Of the company's 90 plants, 58 were unaffected.

Nevertheless, there it was: a total of $250,000,000 in lost sales, by the company's own statement. There is scant victory in that sum, even though the firm did succeed in forcing the union to sign the five-year contract management wanted, and in winning union consent to a time study proposal the company earnestly desired.

True, the workers also got a raise—but one which will take an estimated 62 years to recover the $100,000,000 cash loss. There are few workers who will live to see the net gain.

Most serious for the union, though, the severe blow to its prestige among other unions. In private other leaders are saying "Jim Carey (president) has made the IUE our most ineffective major union." Face losses like that can't be measured in dollars.

Actually the workers appear to have settled on the same terms they could have had before the strike started. One major point, the reinstatement of 36 men discharged for acts of violence, was substantially settled by the union when the cases were left to local grievance committees for arbitration. The company had accepted arbitration some time ago, but the union tried to insist on reinstatement of the discharged ones.

When the smoke clears, some observers anticipate a shakeup that will put new men in IUE's top jobs. Such a movement they say, would not be opposed too strongly by other labor leaders.

Thus, though both lost heavily in cash, the union has signed a five-year contract which seems in balance to represent a distinct victory for the company and may well mark the end of easily won labor disputes. Other companies are now put in better position to resist onerous demands. — M.L.H.

Inflationary Weather

Heretofore we have brooked no debate concerning the perfection of Palm Springs weather. As a hard-working resident we held it to peerless, flawless; and anyone who didn't so concede could get prompt argument.

But now must be confessed one apparent exception: Brazil. No matter what the weather is there, it seems it is the kind that boosts the price of coffee.

AS OTHER EDITORS VIEW THE NEWS

Minors in Trouble? (The Publishers Auxiliary)

Every editor must face, from time to time, a request that a certain person's name be left out of the newspaper.

The circumstances are usually such that the person involved would rather not have them revealed to his friends and fellow citizens.

Sometimes it is hard to refuse such a request, but the editor of integrity, if the item is legitimate news, will have to do so. He may point out that his job is to report what happens, and he can hardly place himself in a position to judge what shall go in and what shall not. His duty to the community is to give them the news.

There are circumstances, however, where more than the consideration of an individual is concerned. One example we are all familiar with is the handling of cases involving teen age boys and girls who have been arrested, and possibly sentenced to an industrial school.

Many newspapers have a policy of reporting such stories, but withholding names. Their reasons usually are that they do not want to harm reputations of those so young, or bring added grief to the parents.

Other newspapers print the names, on the basic theory that they have no right to withhold news, and for the more specific reason that such publicity may help reduce the crime rate in the area.

Another reason often cited is that such events as the arrest of juveniles seldom remains a secret anyway. The story is passed by word of mouth, probably being distorted as it goes along. The end result may make the whole situation seem worse than it actually was.

When this is the case, the newspaper is certainly doing a service to those involved by printing the actual facts.

Vic Sherow, editor of the Gallipolis

(Ohio) Tribune, is now very much involved in a case of this kind. As he explains in our page one story this week, Mr. Sherow did print the names of five juveniles sentenced to an industrial school.

He was cited for contempt of court, since the judge in the case had instructed that the names not be printed. Mr. Sherow is now appealing the case, and he hopes the higher court's decision will set a precedent in Ohio.

It would be well to have the legal question decided, although in most places, as we understand it, the policy of printing names of juvenile offenders is left to the discretion of the newspaper.

Generally, we are opposed to secrecy in any form. If our country is to remain free, government must be conducted within open sight of the people.

Juvenile courts hardly seem an exception. Actually, if the courts are closed to the press, and thus to the public, it is possible for many abuses to arise in those courts.

True, most juvenile judges are sincere men, honestly trying to help the unfortunate young who have gotten into trouble. But how are we to know if there may be those who are not just, if the court proceedings are conducted in darkness?

We would not go so far, however, as to say that there aren't cases where the editor may feel it best to withhold names. But we feel such a decision should come only after consultation with the judge, and a mutual agreement that this is the better course.

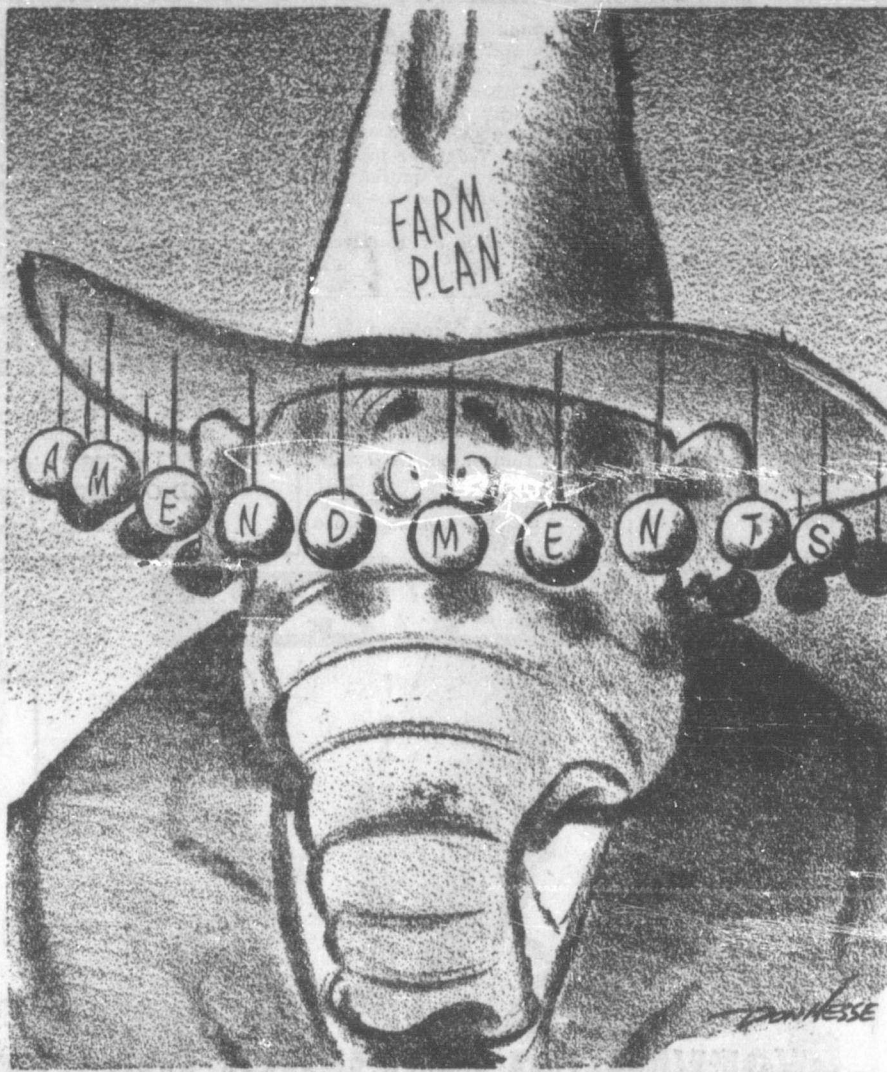

And we think that those cases should be few. For again, the editor's responsibility is to the community as a whole, and it is not right for either him or the judge to become a censor on what the community shall or shall not know.

New Outlook

If we could get the politicians as interested in the public welfare as they are their own welfare we'd have a lot less to worry about.

'I Didn't Order It With Fringe'

THIS SIDE OF THE SUN

By Phat

That wild thoughtless driver
Who through puddles does dash,
Don't cuss him in silence,
Go to court for that splash.

The way Palm Springs is situated at certain intersections with gullies and depressions, coupled with the hosing off of sidewalks and run-off irrigation water, makes for many puddles, especially in the mornings.

And many a person has gone to work with mud spots on their skirt or pant, depending upon the sex of the wearer, because some rude driver barreled right through the puddle, spreading a spray like a speed boat on the Salton Sea.

HERETOFORE, people have born the ignominy of spattered apparel in silence or, at the most, impatient mutterings.

So a little dispatch from Boston, via UP in the Desert Sun, ought to be good news to them and suggest speedy action and retribution.

The item set forth that, in Massachusetts, anyway, and possibly here, too, a driver who thoughtlessly splashes pedestrians or other cars, must pay the cleaning bill.

So, now, it's up to you.

The only trouble is, you can't sue the birds who sit up on telephone or power wires and wait until you put the final flourish on polishing the family auto.

ONE OF THE MOST UNIQUE one-man art shows in southern California or any place, will be staged in the Desert Art Center's open air gallery in the Center Saturday.

The paintings of Eugene Luff will be shown. Known to his many friends as "Buck," Luff is a quadriplegic. His legs are paralyzed and he is only able to move his shoulders and arms but not his hands. But he would not be deterred from his love for water colors and oils.

With a brush strapped to the index finger and thumb of his left hand, he works with his favorite tools.

The show, sponsored by the American Legion and its Auxiliary, is scheduled for from 1 to 4 p.m. in the Center Saturday.

WE HAVE EQUESTRIAN trails and protective signs on highways for the horseback riders and that is a good thing because riding is one of the joys of the desert.

How about bicycle paths hither and yon outside of the heavy traffic area?

Bike riding boomed in the village this week with all of the visiting school vacationers. And the only place they had to go was in traffic. They can't peddle merrily across the desert the way the equestrians gallop.

Anyway it's an idea along recreational lines.

IN NEW YORK they are trying out a talking mail box. It started out as a stamp machine which said "thank you" when you bought. I've been told that now the recording idea has been affixed to mail boxes and when properly asked, tells you when your letter should arrive at its destination.

They could expand that idea. And perhaps install some here to tell us when we will have a munie golf course, $2 show windows or our first ride on the tram.

AND THEN there's the boy in history class on the day the subject was the Puritans. When the teacher asked what people were punished in stocks, he yelled: "Small investors!"

Thoughts at Easter Time

"There is no question of belief, but of experience. Religious experience is absolute. It is indisputable. You can only say that you have never had such an experience, and your opponent will say, 'Sorry, I have.' And there your discussion will come to an end. No matter what the world thinks about religious experience the one who has it possesses the great treasure of a thing that has provided him with a source of life, meaning and beauty and that has given a new splendor to this world and to mankind."

— Carl Gustave Jung

"You know there are certain high mountains which catch the first rays of the morning's sun; and it is hours and hours after that before the plains and the valleys are light. So there are mountainous men, seers, taller men intellectually and spiritually than you and I, who can see away over our heads. The divine sunrise smites them first; they look away down the future; they see things which are not visible to us. So we call them seers. Their vision is not scientific proof; but the experience of the world has justified our trust in them."

— Carl Gustave Jung

"One Universe made up of all that is; and one God in it all, and one principle of being, and one law, the Reason, shared by all thinking creatures, and one Truth."

— Marcus Aurelius

"If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away."

— Henry Thoreau

"Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

— Phil. 4:8

Letters to the Editor

Unshady Parks

To the Editor:

I, and many of my Palm Springs friends are very unhappy about the unshady parks here. We enjoy the south end park very much but find it very uncomfortable when the sun is shining brightly, due to no shade trees.

Could you interest city council in planting shade trees in the center of the park? The palm trees could be used at the outer edges of the park.

We older people would appreciate your giving this suggestion your kind attention. We thank city council for keeping this park so well maintained, and would greatly appreciate the shade trees.

A PALMSAN

Public Pool

To the Editor:

Would like to reply to Bob Howard's article about a stamp to commemorate Palm Springs swimming pools.

It would seem that first Palm Springs should get a public pool. I've been here since October and because I don't live at a hotel with a pool, it's impossible to take a swim. Does the Village cater only to the very wealthy? There are a lot of the common people here who would like some recreation too.

What does the Tourist Bureau say about this? I am from Hawaii where they make all tourists welcome.

Yours for a better Village.

"In line with our resolution to make this a better world, do we start at the national level, the state level, the municipal level or the husband level, girls?..."

BILL RASHALL

Unedited

Mary Villagers remember when the hub of the downtown shopping center ran from Amado to Arenas roads and only less than five years ago!

Today this shopping center stretches for almost two miles with hotels beyond the curve of our main street on the North to around the bend where Palm Canyon drive is generally referred to as Highway 111.

Within the next two years more than these two miles will be solid with new business structures and beautiful hotels. That's our prediction and it will come true just as surely as the sun will rise tomorrow.

On the South side Cameron Center is the biggest development. On the North more hotels are stretching their way toward the city limits. It was last April or May when I wrote a story about the plans of the National Hotel Enterprises with both E. Roy Fitzgerald, the president, and Ray Ryan, vice president, telling me of their future plans. Today these plans have taken a more definite picture with an expected expenditure of approximately $3,500,000 and will include 15 business establishments and 137 apartments.

"BURSTING AT the seams" we wrote ten years ago. The same two years later, and again and again up to the present day, Palm Springs donned an enlarged suit of clothes five years ago and it too is now restrictive in size. It's bursting at the seams again. Page the tailor!

Skip the next two paragraphs. Some of us may be embarrassed reading same.

Of the more than 12,000 permanent residents in Palm Springs only 1100 contributions have been made to the Palm Springs Community Chest. This figure also includes hotel and business contributions. And to top this sad picture of indifference a good portion of these contributions were made by winter residents in our midst only two or three months of the year!

Wonder if some of us believe that the Palm Springs Community Chest is not a worth while cause? No one gets a penny in wages as workers in many towns. All of the money goes to sustaining charitable endeavors and youth work in Palm Springs. Wonder why when a cause so close to our front doors is not supported without somebody knocking at the back door and asking for a contribution? 'Cause that is exactly what the non-paid officials of the Community Chest do not want to do. Send in a buck. Believe me, every part of the 100 cents it contains will be used right here in Palm Springs. The need is for approximately $10,000 before a safe goal is reached.

I MET ALEX Nowak long before I really knew him. He placed ice water in front of me in the Coral Tree restaurant of the Palm Springs hotel. Then would come the butter dish and of course the silver was always there. He'd smile graciously and move silently away.

Then one evening I really met Alex Nowak. He is gray haired, probably in his fifties — a quill of features and he moves with the graceful rhythm of a dancer. But on this particular evening he was not so graceful but plenty happy.

"You're you, aren't you?" he asked while his body swayed a little to the left and then some to the right.

I replied that I was me. "No," smiled Alex, "you are that newspaperman I mean," and he swayed forward a bit before he recovered. I nodded.

"Today is my day off," he hummed a little tune after that statement. "And on my day off — well — I just have a lotta fun. C'mon let me buy you one drink to celebrate my day off. I'm so happy!"

Days later Alex was placing the tumbler of water in front of me at the Coral Tree. He remembered me instantly and launched forth into telling me about the biggest celebration he has enjoyed this winter season. As a matter of fact he enjoys them every year but this year especially because the waitresses all pitched in and bought him a great big birthday cake. "And I got some presents too," Alex added. But when the party was over, "Oh, but I had me a great big celebration."

I shook my finger at him in mock admonishment. He shrugged that off by saying:

"I'm a sick man, the doctors say. But what do I care? I can't drink beer but I drink some whiskey. Sometimes I get a bit lonesome in my room. When I do I just get up and start singing to myself. I sing my lonesomeness away. Try singing when you are lonesome," he advised. That's Alex Nowak spelled with a "W" like all good Polish people should spell their names. That's Alex who celebrates on his day off as if tomorrow will never come and today is the only day in which to live. "Really live," he added.

To which I told him how I'd been in his almost daily contribution: "You are never really low down 'till the curb stones look like the walls of the Grand Canyon."

EARL WILSON:

Advice for Golfers

NEW YORK — I'd like to pass along this alleged golf dialog, dedicated to President Eisenhower and other linksmen: "The traps of this course are very annoying, aren't they?" "Yes, would you please close yours?"

There's a great line in Sammy Davis Jr.'s "Mr. Wonderful" when Jack Carter says to his wife (played by pretty Pat Marshall): "You're only 36 — you're young." She answers: "For a grandmother, that's young. For everybody else, that's old."

Dave Garraway and the attractive Pamela Wilde (ex-wife of a titled Frenchman, Philippe Cornin and now with Eliot, Unger & Eliot, TV motion picture firm) are announcing their engagement... Debbie Reynolds has a full-length desert mink, a premature birthday gift from Eddie What's his name... Joyce Mathews, in Sardi's with Billy Rose after her appendectomy, was saluted with "Let's see your scar!"

Big doings are on at the Gabors with Eva's fiancé, Dr. John Williams of Palm Springs, arriving to see her in "The Little Glass Clock" (no date set, they insist.) Magda had the cops in last night to manhandle Tony Galucci whom she weds shortly — but it was a "bachelor party" gag. Zsa Zsa's due in to quiet things down.

In our contest for the Prettiest Girl in America: Barbara Hilgenberg, of Tucson, University of Arizona student, hostess to the Press Photos convention at Phoenix Apr. 1... Some lucky gal at the "Mr. W." opening looked so much like Grace Kelly that everybody thought she was. Now who could that be and what's she doing later?

The "Mr. Wonderful" company was sad at Danny's Hideaway when the reviews came out — Jack Carter had given up big TV loot, Sammy Jr. had passed up half a million in cafe bookings. Yet both were undeniably wonderful and if the show fights back, the customers are assured a "Mr. Wonderful" evening of entertainment.

England's sent Philip Harben, its culinary ambassador, here to convince us that British food is delectable. At a gourmet's lunch given at 21 by Mac Kreindler, Harben spoke of salmon and admitted being an expert. "An expert," he said, "is a person who can tell you precisely what river that salmon came from when it actually spent its entire life in the Atlantic Ocean."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL... Mrs. Henry Fonda's off to get the divorce... Barbara Britton's husband, Dr. Eugene Cuzor, who just got here, is hospitalized with dislocated vertebrae and a concussion. (Had an auto accident in L. A.)... Bill ("Pipe Dream") Johnson and TV actress Jet Macdonald may get hitched — and soon... Latin honey Rosemary Ridgewell is cozy with a Mexico City columnist.

Frank Sinatra arrives April 11 enroute to Spain... Kim Novak got her driver's license... A featured player in a B'way musical may have charges filed against him for hitting the bottle.

EARL'S PEARLS... To restore humility, read the want ads. You'd be surprised how many jobs there are for which you are too old, too unattractive or too ignorant... Oren Arnold.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: A motorist, annoyed by his neighbors' shiny new cars, hung a sign on his vintage chariot: "Out of date — but out of debt!"

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Martha Lipton heard of a guy who played against a girls' basketball team. Instead of dribbling, he drooled.

"Lowering the taxes gets votes," notes Herb Shriner, "and you know Congressmen — they figure they need the votes more than the country needs the taxes." That's earl, brother.

"The public deserves to have insurance against catastrophic illness... The public deserves defense against a doctor who charges exorbitant fees."

WASHINGTON—Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine) on a woman for president or vice president:

"It is practically impossible for a woman to have a chance to be considered. Yet the majority of voters in our country are women."

6 Mrs. Watson New Club President

VFW Post and Auxiliary Observe 10th Anniversary

Veterans of Foreign Wars, Frontier Post 5987 and the Woman's Auxiliary celebrated their 10th anniversary Sunday night at the VFW hall on Camino Parocela at Oleander Road.

More than 50 persons attended the potluck supper and joined in the evening's festivities. Children played games under the supervision of Auxiliary members.

In summarizing the 10-year history, Commander Dean Pickell reminded the group that a decade ago the Post Home was "barely an idea" and that today it is a reality and debt-free. Plans are in the offing for future building and for landscaping. During the 10 years of its existence the VFW has taken its place as a leading veterans' organization in the desert area.

Scotty Hull is Four Years Old

Master Scotty Hull was four years old on Saturday and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman (Racquet Club Manager) Hull, arranged a Circus Party for him at their home. There were balloons and a cake and everything was in the circus motif.

Helping Scotty celebrate were Nancy Hancock, Blair Sanchez, Chris Foster, Allen Iverson, Glen Peacock, Jancy Johnson, and baby brother Stevie Hull.

Mrs. Glenn Watson was elected president of the Palm Springs Woman's Club at the annual business meeting. She succeeds Mrs. Boyd Andrews who has been president for the last two seasons, and will officially take office at the next meeting which will be held Monday, April 2.

Other members who will assume office at this meeting include Mmes. Herbert Burns, vice president; Paul Leathers, recording secretary; Fred W. The new play by Albert Johnson, "Adam and Eve Meet in the Atom" was then presented by the trio and was enthusiastically received by members and their guests.

"The Sophisticates," a trio consisting of Scottie Sloan, baritone; William Kring, pianist, and Buddy Cameron, dancer, will entertain at the April 2 meeting. This trio has been meeting with unusual success all over Southern California before widely diversified groups of audiences. Each member of the group is an artist in his own right, and their combined capabilities promise a very enjoyable afternoon.

Mrs. Myron B. Persons, tea chairman, will be assisted by Mmes. Francis Brugman, Jacques Crommelin, Andrew Fitzmorris, Claude Freeman, George Gallagher, Lee Havener, Clare Kinne, and Joseph Stermer.

Alan Rosen, a student at Elsinore Military Academy, with a lieutenant's rating, arrived Sunday to spend Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Rosen.

Around Town

with Mildy Crawford

Something new this week... was the Levy-Ohrbach party... which avoided date conflicts with other parties... and took over the Racquet Club's main diningroom and the Mural Room... because it was on Monday night... This worked out so nicely, with the party having free sway on the dance floor... with Teddy Noell playing just for them... that it may easily set a precedent... The party gathered in the Mural Room for cocktails... and the hors d'oeuvre table was beautifully flowered... Perfect parrot tulips, stock, glads and ranunculus were a fragrant arrangement... The Edward Smalls delayed their departure for Los Angeles... long enough to drop in for cocktails... Mrs. Small told me her producer husband has five films in production right now... This Mr. Small is really Mr. Big, you know...

Gene DuBay arrived escorting two lovely women, Lily Pons and Velma Silverman... Greeted the Maury Horners (the Commander just back from a sea cruise aboard the Wasp)... Chatted with George Goldberg, who hasn't been seen on the party circuit much this season... The reason is he's been ranching... really keeping farm hours and driving tractors... and is looking that healthy... Elsinore Machris Gilliland was there with her favorite houseguests the William Murphys... And Evelyn Schiff was accompanied by Sydney who is a refugee from Chicago's snow but a little overwhelmed by the abrupt change to ardent sun-warmth... Ellsworth Vines and his wife were there... and we were talking, of all things, about a new sports dress that has a skirt or shorts that zip onto the blouse... right around the waistline... Had Lester Selig as a dinner companion... and I had always

Bridey Murphy Party Brings Out Some Quaint Costumes

The Bridey Murphy party given by the Francis Pruitts Sunday evening at their home at 1642 South Calle Marcus, was a riot from the time the first costumed guest arrived until after the barbecue when someone walked too close to the pool's edge and went for an unscheduled swim.

The hostess, who had been Queen for a Night at Shadow Mountain Club's Tahitian Night, was dressed in regal robes and wearing a crown, while her husband was re-incarnated as Buffalo Bill, with dashing mustachios and goatee.

A watch and balls dangled from the chandelier in the living room, ready for hypnosis to bring forth the stories of the guests, who "came as they were."

Blanche Andreus arrived as a leprechaun, with long green hose and jacket, pointed ears and a pixie hat. Dr. Milford Beebe came as Joseph Smith, the bearded Mormon leader, and his wife, with long sweeping, eyelashes, carried a basketful of dolls.

An attractive Hawaiian princess "with plenty of papaya" was Genevieve Berg, while Shelby Wegner, who acted as co-hostess, was attired as Carmen, with

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK (AP) — The flowers which bloom in the Spring have nothing on your major league managers and you can take it from them today that it's going to be a seven-team tie for first place in each circuit come Fall.

Only two pilots aren't claiming, by outright statement or direct inference, that their heroes won't grab the gonfalon this season. Lou Boudreau of Kansas City and Bobby Bragan of Pittsburgh are the cautious souls.

It's liable to get them run right out of the manager's union.

BOUDREAU'S PLEA is that "We're thinking in terms of the future." Bragan couldn't be expected to look that far ahead. Still, he's also guilty of false illusions when he insists "We might finish as high as sixth."

Here's the way the other "first place clubs" are rated by their eager pilots:

"We got the power, pitching and speed," says Casey Stengel of the confident Yankees, seeking a seventh flag in eight years. Which sounds good.

"NO TEAM RATES ahead of us in the over-all picture," insists Al Lopez of Cleveland.

"Outside of two spots, we're a mighty strong club all the way down the line," argues Bucky Harris of Detroit.

"All we've got to do is find a fourth starting pitcher," explains Marty Marion of the White Sox, who predicted a pennant last year and is a bit cautious after winding up third.

"In the last six weeks of last season we were a first division ball club," intimates Paul Richards of Baltimore, who is pointing for a fast getaway and draw your own inference.

"WE CONCEDE nothing to anybody," points out Mike Higgins of Boston, who firmly believes he can win.

"This is a good, hustling young ball club," asserted Chuck Dressen of Washington.

Manager Walt Alston of the world championship Brooklyn Dodgers shrugs off his former caution and admits "We're the club to beat."

"Man for man we're as good as Brooklyn," comes back Milwaukee's Charley Grimm. "And I think we're even better. With some luck we'll win it all."

"WITH A FEW BREAKS," dares Mayo Smith of Philadelphia, "we could go all the way."

"Given pitching we could climb two or three notches—or even more," says Freddie Hutchinson of the seventh place Cardinals.

Birdie Tebbetts of Cincinnati thinks he can parlay his power into a pennant contender "if we get the pitching."

"We have the versatility and depth," Bill Rigney of the Giants reports enigmatically.

"We got a real lift in off-season trades," asserts Stan Hack of the Cubs, labeling his infield the best in the major.

So, as of the moment, it's a seven team race in each of the majors. And will be for the entire first week of the season.

Ground Broken for 275-Ft. Pool at Hot Springs

Work is in progress this week on a giant 275-foot pool on Eighth street, Desert Hot Springs, which may become the scene of state-wide swimming meets in the near future.

Ground was broken for the large pool, being built by L. W. Coffee, Saturday at the site just north of his bathhouse.

Present at the ceremonies were Johnny Ravese Jr., of Palm Springs, youthful champion swimmer and Louis H. Carter, president of the National Junior Olympics who is acting as technical advisor on construction of the pool.

Coffee hopes to have the pool, which will be California's longest and the second longest in the U.S., completed by September 1.

Carter expressed hope that a first-class state franchise can be obtained for the pool from the National Junior Olympics, which would mean that state-wide swimming contests could be conducted there.

Cost of the pool has been estimated at $150,000. It is expected that it will accommodate 3,000 bathers or swimmers per day.

A feature of the pool will be a 16 by 4 foot plate glass window at the deep end, through which spectators may watch underwater swimmers or nighttime flood light swimming exhibitions.

Next Home Game Slated on Saturday

Five More Games At Polo Grounds Before Leaving

San Diego's Padres with a 4-6 record for the Spring training season to date play away from home tomorrow and Friday but return to the Polo Grounds Saturday and Sunday as opponent.

Yesterday Sacramento thumped the Pads 11 to 3 in a game played at Brookside Park, Pasadena. It was the Solons' second win of the training season and was sparked by the hitting of Ferris Fain, veteran ball player now with Sacramento.

AL FEDEROFF, Padre infielder, was the only San Diego player to get more than one hit.

The Padres close their training season here next week. Counting Saturday's game with the Solons they have four more home games scheduled.

There will be no game Sunday but on Monday, Seattle returns for another game with the Pads and then after two games away from home, San Diego closes with games at the Polo Grounds Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

They leave Saturday night, April 7, for San Diego where they open the 1956 Pacific Coast League season in a day-night double header with Los Angeles.

REMAINDER of the training schedule is as follows: Hollywood here today. Tomorrow against Los Angeles at Wrigley Field.

Friday, Seattle at San Bernardino.

Saturday, Sacramento here.

Sunday, April 1, Portland at Glendale.

April 2, Seattle here.

April 3, Camp Pendleton there.

April 4, Vancouver at Fullerton.

April 5, Seattle here.

Harvey Knox Charged with Punching Sports Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Harvey Knox, stepfather of UCLA football star Ronnie Knox, was accused by a Los Angeles sportswriter today of punching him during a dressing room argument at Legion Stadium.

Knox made his debut Tuesday night as a second for Los Angeles welterweight Art Aragon, who knocked out Danny Giovannelli of Brooklyn.

Sportswriter Bud Furillo of the Los Angeles Herald-Express said Knox hit him in Aragon's dressing room after the fight.

"When I came into Aragon's dressing room, Knox told Art, 'Watch what you say to some of these people. Some are - - -' Furillo said. 'Then he told me, 'You're no writer.'"

"I told him, 'You're no second,' the newsman said. 'Then I turned my back and started to walk away and he hit me on the side of my neck.'"

Furillo said Knox was angry with him over a series the writer had done about Knox and UCLA football Coach Henry Red Sand.

Gonzales Cinches Pro Net Crown from Tony Trabert
ATLANTA (AP)—It's now official—Pancho Gonzales is the winner of his professional tour tennis against Tony Trabert.

Big Pancho, the dark-haired power hitter from Los Angeles, wrapped up the title last night when he whipped Trabert of Cincinnati, Ohio, 6-1, 11-9. It was Gonzales' 51st win on the 100-match tour; Trabert has won only 15.

Trabert, former Wimbledon and U.S. champion, was helpless against Gonzales' powerful service and crisp passing shots in the opening set. He battled grimly.

Moore Has Easy Win Over King
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Chubby Archie Moore, trimming down for his June 5 title bout in London, carried Howard King, Reno, Nev., for ten rounds here Tuesday night and walked off with a unanimous decision.

Moore floored King twice for eight and nine counts and seemed to have the bout well in hand at all times. Moore, who weighed in at a heavy 191, stalked King, 188, most of the fight.

McCoy Says Fixed Fights Story False

Hearing Fails To Prove Anything Conclusive, Claim

EDITOR'S NOTE: Babe McCoy, veteran Los Angeles matchmaker for the Olympic Auditorium, has been the primary target during California's investigation of charges that he "fixed" fights. In the following exclusive statement, McCoy tells his side of the story.
Copyright, 1956, by United Press

By BABE MCCOY
As Told To The United Press
LOS ANGELES (AP)—This hearing has failed to call witnesses pertinent to the accusations made against me regarding the allegedly fixed fights.

For instance, Tommy Campbell, the fighter who allegedly was instigated by me as well as Manager George Moore to lose to Art Aragon: They have not subpoenaed Mr. Moore to the stand. He is a licensed boxing manager in the state, lives in the city and is active in the business and available.

Yet he has never been subpoenaed which is evidence that they do not intend to include testimony of a man whose character and reputation is beyond reproach.

THE REASON they didn't call Mr. Moore is that Mr. James Cox, Gov. Goodwin J. Knight's special prosecutor knows Mr. Moore will tell the truth.

I'm positive Mr. Cox is not looking for the truth. His obvious intention is to smear me because he is politically ambitious and wants the job as the "Czar" of California boxing. If he could have Babe McCoy's license picked up it would be a feather in his cap in his effort to get the job as boxing commissioner.

None of the testimony thus far would have been allowed to have been written into evidence in any court of law.

My record at the Olympic over 14 years has brought to light only one allegedly shady fight. I refer to the Campbell-Aragon match—about which Campbell admitted lying under my cross-examination.

That he admitted perjury would have immediately impeached this witness in any true court.

OTHER SO-CALLED fixed fights recited to the committee by Georgia Hansford and Watson Jones ex-fighters were scattered around country—in Seattle, Portland, Tacoma, Topeka, Baltimore, Newark, Chicago, and Minneapolis.

One fight in particular that Hansford brought up was the bout he had with Enrique Bolanos in San Antonio. Bolanos at that time was the leading contender for Ike Williams' title. Hansford was washed up and trying for a comeback in order to make a little money. Bolanos' next fight following the Hansford match was against the champion of the world in Los Angeles.

By what stretch of the imagination could anybody assume that a fighter as washed up as Hansford would have to take a dive for the leading contender?

At the Training Camps

GLENDALE (AP) — The Vancouver Mounties yesterday trimmed the Portland Beavers 5-3 at Casey Stengel Field.

Ed Mickelson scored two home runs and four hits in a vain effort to spark his losing teammates to victory but the Mounties were too much for the Beavers. Pitcher Ernie Funk hit two home runs for the Mounties to cinch the game for the Vancouverites.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Angels defeated University of Southern California 9-6 yesterday in a home run duel featured by a grand slam homer for the collegians.

Outfielder Prentice Browne got a two-run homer for the Los Angeles club but it was overshadowed by Kent Habley's grand slam homer for the Trojans.

ANAHEIM (AP) — Carlos Bernier, fiery Hollywood outfielder, had his best day of the Spring training season yesterday as he led the Stars to an 8-7 win over Seattle.

After Seattle went into a one run lead in the top of the ninth on Joe Taylor's two-run homer, successive singles by Paul Pettit, Nick Koback and Bernier won the game. Bernier had three hits in four at bat, stole two bases and scored a run as well as driving one in. The Stars meet San Diego at Palm Springs today with Roger Sawyer scheduled to start.

DE LAND, Fla. (AP) — Fire baller Jerry Casale, who led the American Association in strikeouts last season, makes his debut for the San Francisco Seals today against Minneapolis.

Casale fanned 186 batters last year with Louisville and has been touted as a 20-game winner in the Coast League.

The Seals got a day off yesterday after playing 15 straight exhibition contests but Manager Eddie Jost staged a workout for six Boston players who checked in on option. In addition to Casale, Jost worked with southpaw pitchers Roy Timney and Bob Smith, right handed hurler Al Schropf and outfielders Bob Jenkins and Gordie Windhorn.

Sullivan Hot as Sox Put Away Chisox

Earns Starting Job And Hailed As 20-Game Winner

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Frank Sullivan's brilliant Grapefruit League record made him a cinch opening day pitcher today and a potential 20-game winner for the dark-horse Boston Red Sox.

Sullivan was nixed for only two runs in six innings Tuesday as he collaborated with Ivan Delock in cooling off even the red-hot Larry Doby and giving the Red Sox a 7-2 verdict over the Chicago White Sox. The performance was doubly satisfactory to Manager Mike Higgins because Sullivan is supposed to be the Red Sox "stopper" this year—and Tuesday's win "stopped" a four-game Boston losing streak.

The world champion Brooklyn Dodgers, St. Louis Cardinals and Kansas City Athletics also were encouraged by stellar mound performances.

THE DODGERS got four-hit pitching from 20-game Don Newcombe and relief ace Clem Labine to beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-2. The loss was made especially bitter for the Phillies when third-baseman Willie Jones was "beamed" by a Newcombe pitch in the fifth inning and removed to Morton Plant Hospital in Clearwater, Fla.

X-rays disclosed no fracture but Jones was retained in the hospital overnight and is feared lost to the Phillies until the April 17 opener.

Lou Kretlow yielded two hits in six innings and Art Ditmar locked it up with a hitless three-inning job to lead the Athletics to a 7-2 decision over the Detroit Tigers. The loss was the 13th in 17 games for the Tigers, who saw four pitchers combed for 15 hits.

VINEGAR BEND MIZELL, Luis Arroyo and Ellis Kinder, three of Manager Fred Hutchinson's key pitchers, turned in a two-hitter as the Cardinals scored a 2-1 triumph over the Milwaukee Braves. The trio held the Braves hitless through the last seven innings after a single by Bill Bruton and Johnny Logan's double produced a run off Mizell in the second.

Jim Busby homered in the ninth inning to give the Cleveland Indians an 8-7 win over the Orioles and the Chicago Cubs wallowed 20 hits to down the New York Giants 13-10, despite homers by Wes Westrum and Foster Castleman.

Stack Chevrolet Celebrates 5th Year with More Progress

Five years ago a determined man arrived in Palm Springs with his wife to start a business — a business that within five years would become one of the largest automotive plants in the area.

The man was D. C. "Stack" Stachler, owner of Stack Chevrolet. Stachler, who with his wife Hazel, came to Palm Springs late in January, 1951, and from Floyd Bigley rented a small office of some 80 square feet and became the town's first and only Chevrolet dealer.

Working late into the evening and early in the mornings, at the end of his first month Stachler had sold four new and used cars. Business was promising to be better, so he continued to work at the car business, and his wife went into the real estate business. Her job lasted only a month and a half, for in May of 1952 the automotive center began to grow.

Stachler leased the land in back of the service station on Palm Canyon Drive and Sunny Dunes Road from Milton Hicks of Palm Springs Builders Supply, and started building his first automobile showroom. This move was followed in quick succession by the construction of a used car lot, wash rack, parts department, paint booth and repair shop.

The program took about a year, and as it was being completed he planned to take over the General Petroleum service station on the corner (this was the location of his first office when he came to the Village) and add to his steadily growing automotive center. By June, 1952, it became a reality and was followed closely by the leasing of a large lot behind the valuable property for used and new car storage. Stack Chevrolet was still bursting at the seams for more space.

The following month, July, 1952, he opened a sub-agency of his company in Twenty-nine Palms, known as Stacks Used Car Lot. It has continued to be a major asset to his growing empire.

Stachler is adamant about his growth in saying that "I did not build this concern, but rather my employees and customers built it. I could never have done it without them."

So it was that Stack Chevrolet made its mark on the community of Palm Springs for its first five years, and so it was that that concern could in February of this year — on its fifth anniversary — add still another improvement to the ever growing automotive corner.

WHAT HAPPENED in the first years Stachler was in business? How did the business of five years ago compare with that of today? Times have changed, that is true, but the difference is contrastingly spectacular. In 1951 he sold a total of four cars, new and used, the first month, compared with a total today of seventy-seven during one month. The service business during his first month made $40, and today has grown into an $8,000 to $10,000 a month resource. The service station, pumping 8,000 gallons of gasoline a month in 1951, has climbed well over 44,000 gallons today.

He credits the great growth of his automobile business today to three independent factors, (1) the growth of this community, (2) the hard and conscientious work of his employees, and last but not least, (3) the satisfied customers, without whom there would be no business.

Another big change over the past five years has been in employees. Stachler working alone for the first couple of months in 1952, hired a single man "to help out," and along with the growth came the hiring of more persons which today numbers 23 full-time, year-around, employees.

TOP MAN UNDER the boss is capable, efficient Lee Hooper, general manager of Stack Chevrolet, who has been with the firm for some four years and leads the firm's personnel of an eight man sales department, sixteen man parts and service department, and the two women and one man office staff.

The entire local staff of Stack Chevrolet is paid a total yearly salary of over $120,000 and every dollar of this money is returned to businessmen in this area.

Having already surpassed the million dollars worth of business a year level, the sales department, over the last five years sold a total of over 2,000 new and used passenger cars and trucks.

Today, Stack Chevrolet has added a new car show room, facing Palm Canyon Drive, and has turned the old show room into a truck sales room. A complete automotive service has been set up for the convenience of residents and visitors to this winter resort. The total area encompassed by the concern today, compared with the 80 square feet of the very first office, totals more than two acres.

With all the departments of the automotive center, the organization has added special features by carrying in the service department accessories, gas and oil, U.S. tires and tubes, and personally recommendations and guarantees all used cars and trucks.

Chevrolets' used car guarantee is backed up by the millions of persons who have had proved to them the truthfulness of the O.K. used car guarantee.

Stack Chevrolet stands today as a symbol of progressive business in America's foremost desert resort.

Stachler Proves to be Man of Vision in Business

D. C. "Stack" Stachler, a man of vision and foresight, five years ago started an organization that today is one of the progressive businesses of the desert.

Few people know the background of this man, to whom employees look as "more a friend than a boss," and as one employee put it, "I would go through hell or high-water for him."

Stack started in the automotive business in 1927 when he worked as a parts man for a Chevrolet dealer in Portland, Indiana. Within six years he had gone up the ladder as office manager, sales manager and finally general manager.

In the early 1930's Stack went into the motor division of Chevrolet and for the following 12 years lived in 17 different cities of the United States.

He went to work for two years as Los Angeles city manager for Studebaker Corporation, and in 1947 took over as general manager for one of the largest Chevrolet dealers in the United States in Anderson, Indiana.

In 1951 he resigned this position to take over his own agency.

Cost of Cancer is 450 Times $5,000 Quota

The cost of cancer to the American public in 1955 will be more than 450 times as much as the $25,000,000 the American Cancer Society is seeking for its cancer control programs this year, Margaret Manasse, local campaign co-chairman, declared today.

She said that information received by the Riverside County Branch of the Society indicates that the annual cost nationally in loss of goods and service through cancer disabilities and death is about $12,000,000,000.

"If these figures are applied to Riverside county," she declared, "the estimated annual loss chargeable to cancer in this community would amount to an estimated $2,250,000, as against a campaign goal of $5000."

"These figures, of course, can only be approximate. Although they give a rough idea of the economic importance of cancer to the community, it isn't easy to express in dollars and cents the value of a human life."

Mrs. Manasse said the national estimates were arrived at by statistical methods, using loss of man-hours in industry, and cost of medical treatment.

Criticism Sends Red Security Chief Back Home

LONDON — Soviet security chief Ivan Serov, who was denounced in the British press as an "odious thug" and a "butcher" cut short his visit to Britain today and left for Moscow in a Soviet jet airliner.

There were reports yesterday Serov would return to Moscow sooner than expected because of the press attacks the Russians feared might backfire against the state visit here next month of Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Communist party leader Nikita S. Khrushchev.

Criticism against the Bulganin-Khrushchev visit was mounting hourly and official protests were placed before the House of Commons today. Serov came here to check security arrangements for the visit of his leaders.

Parcel Post Mail Advice Given by Postmaster

Suggestions on how to obtain better service in receiving parcel post mail were outlined today by Postmaster Merritt Williams.

Hundreds of parcels are received daily for delivery by Post Office parcel post trucks, the postmaster said. This, he added, is in addition to packages weighing less than two pounds which are handled by carriers.

Williams urged cooperation from the public to enable the postal service to deliver parcel post quickly and properly. He said, "If a package is expected, try to be home on the day you expect delivery. It is especially important to have the proper change available when a C.O.D. package is expected."

In cases where it is not possible to be present to receive packages, an arrangement may be made with the building superintendent or a neighbor to accept delivery, the postmaster said. A note should be left for the carrier in such instances, he added.

Williams continued, "Should you receive an insured parcel with damaged contents, be sure to save the wrapper which will aid in filing your claim."

"When notice has been left for you to call at the post office for a parcel which could not be delivered, please do so promptly."

Rice Acquires Narcotics Man

A request by Sheriff Joe W. Rice for an additional investigator in the narcotics detail made last week and referred by the board of supervisors to the personnel director, was approved by the supervisors this week on recommendation of Personnel Director Donald E. Spencer.

"From our investigation it appears the sheriff has three employees in an investigative or supervisory capacity who handle all juvenile and narcotic cases," said Spencer. "Because of the nature of the work, not many law enforcement officers want to operate in this field. The work requires specialized training, is time consuming, requires long hours and often does not provide glamorous results as compared to other law enforcement work."

Spencer recommended the employment of a former employee at top step salary of lower classification. "If there were a sergeant vacancy the former employee could be employed on same salary step he formerly occupied," he declared, "but there is no sergeant vacancy nor need for the additional investigator."

Police Hope Pain Will Trap Thief

MARSHALLTOWN, Iowa — Police asked local doctors to be on the lookout today for suspicious cases of stomachache. Officers figured this was the best way to find the thief who stole 144 pies from a bakery.

Sacajawea, the famous Shoshone Indian girl guide and heroine of the Lewis and Clark expedition of 1805-6, is buried on the Wind River Indian Reservation. She died in 1884.

Constable Poe Seeks Direction, Gets Warning

Constable Howard F. Poe of the Palm Springs Judicial District had already purchased two Western directories at a cost of $20.80 although his office supplies account contained a balance of only $6.91, County Administrative Officer Clay Begole told the county supervisors this week. However, he recommended that the board approve boosting his supplies budget account by $13.89 so the bill could be paid.

"I hope the constable will in the future be aware that he is not supposed to make purchases amounting to more than he has in his budget," declared Supervisor Warren.

"Has the purchasing agent circularized all constables and other such agencies with full instructions?" asked Supervisor George Berkey.

"I have considered for some time notifying every department head and office of the county that no purchases should be made without a purchase order," replied Begole. "I believe the matter is pretty well cleared up." Begole is purchasing agent. Charles Thompson is chief assistant purchasing agent.

Brazil Tightens Ban on U.S. Cars

RIO DE JANEIRO — Brazil may open consulates in every U.S. port as part of its drive against illegal shipments of cars to this country, foreign ministry sources said.

Almost 550 motor vehicles were said to have arrived illegally so far this year.

Brazil is fighting the imports on grounds they are draining foreign exchange for a non-essential commodity.

MORE THAN $250,000 worth of pearls from "all the waters of the world" are currently being displayed at a Pageant of Pearls at Palm Springs Howard Manor and 193 South Palm Canyon Drive. Here Andrea Leeds Howard, former movie star, weighs some of the pearls which took her two years to search out and collect in such far-off places as the Orient. Her husband is Sportsman Bob Howard. Supervisors Plan Two Elections on Bonds Totalling $6,816,000

By unanimous vote the Riverside County Board of Supervisors instructed county counsel this week to prepare necessary papers to put on the June primary election ballot a $4,316,000 bond issue covering the building program for the entire county recommended by the county building commission to meet the needs for county building projects through 1970.

This bond issue will be separate from the county General Hospital bond issue for which county counsel was instructed last week to prepare necessary papers in order that it may be on the June ballot also. It is believed the hospital bond issue will be approximately $2,500,000.

Dr. Benjamin Goldberg of Palm Springs said Monday he has not yet completed his report on the hospital and his recommendation as to the bond issue amount to cover needs, but expects to have it ready later this week.

THE BUILDING COMMISSION DID NOT STUDY THE HOSPITAL BUILDING NEEDS.

Their study covered the need for county building centers in the communities of Hemet, Palm Springs, Elsinore, Corona, Indio, Blythe, and San Geronimo (Banning-Baumont area), and expansion of facilities in Riverside, the county seat.

Two schools of thought were expressed Monday, one that the general building bond issue will get more support from the people because it will benefit directly the various areas of the county, and the other that the hospital building bond issue will get the vote because of the obviously critical need.

Those believing the general issue will get the larger vote, expressed the belief that if the hospital issue is to carry it should be included with the general building project.

Council to Act Tonight on First 3-Story Building

City council, in its meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in the city offices, has scheduled discussion and decision on a permit to allow Palm Springs' first three-story building, formation of a parking lot district comprised of tenants and owners surrounding the city's Peveler site that was bought either for a parking lot or a fire station, and many other matters pertinent to civic growth.

In the two weeks since the last meeting, two informal discussion meetings have been held at El Mirador Hotel to familiarize council members with those matters requiring decision tonight.

Among the items presented then for discussion, later thought, and action tonight will be many basic problems in the over-all guidance of the city. The parking problem has reached the stage where consideration of completely new methods may be necessary.

The Peveler site, bought by the city last year to be used either as a parking lot if bought by an assessment district, or as the site of a fire station to replace the one when it is moved upon enlargement of the police station, faces decision deadline tonight. Robert Schlessinger, attorney for some of the members of the assessment district, said last week he will ask for an extension of time to prepare a renewed petition which would include a request for partial city financing.

The A. M. Leibling property near the Bank of America parking lot has failed in a negotiation stage so extended that the members of the assessment district who originally agreed to buy it now will be required to pay a price far in excess of the original negotiating figure. Their "washout" deadline is tomorrow.

The sewer issue has reached the stage where plans for the city's growth even within a five-year program will necessitate an expenditure of more than $2,000,000 for lines and disposal plant.

The paving of Tahquitz Road from Indian Avenue through Section 14 to Sunrise Way has been termed by businessmen and homeowners as the answer to the needs of healthy growth in the Village. For the first time since the city's incorporation, the council has invited the Agua Caliente Tribal Council and members of the band whose property touches the proposed roadway to meet informally to discuss accomplishment, predicated on the desire of both groups for progress and benefits.

A letter to Vyola Olinger, tribal chairman, has been sent through City Manager R. W. Peterson from the council, asking her to attend with all interested Indians so problems can be worked out, and a common objective be reached for pursuance.

Cathedral City Chamber Names Seven Directors

Seven men were elected to the board of directors of the Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce last night at a special election meeting at the Town Hall.

The new directors are Dr. John Beukema, M.D.; Edgar N. Jorgensen, real estate broker; Ivan Sharp, real estate man; and Bert Wade, employee of California Electric. The men who were reelected were Paul W. Clark, realtor and insurance man; Warner Moon, county librarian and present secretary of the Chamber, and George H. Miller, retired.

The holdover directors include retiring president Claude Cobb, Emil Greener, Herb Henry, Berton Lamb, L. C. Lewis, Walter Melrose, Orvil Zappe and George Zentmyer.

The directors, at their regular monthly meeting to be held at the Town Hall on April 2, will elect the officers of the organization.

The election committee at last night's meeting was comprised of Dr. Graham Hunter, Robert Sharrell, and Herman (Jeff) Sueferer.

Dance Slated on Teen Visitors Program Tonight

Steve White and his six-piece recording jazz and pop band from Los Angeles will make the first of three appearances here tonight, as part of the city-planned recreation program for visiting teenagers.

The dance, as are similar events at the American Legion Hall Thursday and Friday evenings, is being sponsored by the Palm Springs Optimist Club.

The high school swimming pool is open this afternoon from 1 to 5 p.m. for the convenience of the vacationers, and will be open every afternoon through Saturday.

Information booths concerning all activities being provided under the sponsorship of the City Recreation Department, Youth Coordinating Council, Hotel and Apartment Association, and the Youth Center, are located on Palm Canyon Drive in front of the former Desert Inn Garage location, and at the Youth Center.

Besides all recreational activities planned, City Recreation Director Howard Haddock urged all teen-agers to conclude their vacation here by attending the church of their choice Easter Sunday.

2 More Bookie Suspects Heard

Two more suspects of bookmaking, Frank and Joe Portnoy of Cork 'n Bottle Liquors in Palm Springs, were bound over to Indian Superior Court when appearing before Riverside Municipal Judge Elwood Rich yesterday.

Their date coincided with the time set by Judge Rich for two other suspects, at 3 p.m., Friday.

The Portnoys were arrested by sheriff's deputies in a simultaneous raid March 10 in three county cities, which netted nine suspects.

Treasury Places Income Tax Liens on Entertainment Stars

LOS ANGELES —The Internal Revenue Service yesterday filed tax liens against several top Hollywood entertainers including Rita Hayworth and Judy Garland.

The liens included Miss Hayworth, $7541 for 1951; Miss Garland and her husband, Sid Luft, $20,891 for 1952 and 1953; Ethel Barrymore, $12,142 for 1951 and 1954; and Mickey Rooney, $3295 for 1954.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL Department of the Palm Springs Community Church entertained the Junior High group of the Crestline Presbyterian Church at a swimming and barbecue party at the home of Major and Mrs. Ruben Fleet at 221 Merito Place. After the afternoon fun, they attended the Phil Kerr Glee Club service at the church. Local members attending were Sally Fleet, Darlene Cole, Kay Weber, Genielle Crawley, Ardell Ford, Sidney Sanders, Jo Anna Brady, Judy Harveth, Vera and Vicki Biss, Bonnie Blackstone, Kenny Breitweg, Susan Catherwood, Mary Lindenstein, Don Brown and Bill Chinn. Teen Exuberance is Calming Here

Continuous police patrol has virtually halted teenage disturbance throughout the Village, police reports showed today.

Confiscation of beer, and orders to disperse quieted the noisiest party last night. Boys in black paper derbies reported swarming over Bullock's about midnight were gone before patrol cars arrived.

Patrols through the grounds of the Palm Springs Pueblo quieted the youngsters staying there. Similar "watchbird" action near The Koffee Kup about 2 a.m. today stilled a milling throng that has seemed to use the parking lot adjoining the restaurant as a late rendezvous.

Police Chief Gus Keitmann has ordered the extra patrols to stay on duty throughout the week.

The United States has a beautiful new songbird, the flame-orange and black spotted-breasted oriole from southern Mexico and Central America. A colony of the orioles nest near Miami, Fla. The birds apparently are here to stay, says the National Geographic Society.

Stevenson Flies in to Map Drive in California

LOS ANGELES —Adlai Stevenson arrived here today to map strategy for his "do or die" campaign in the California presidential primary.

Stevenson cancelled a Florida vacation to make a 3-day California trip to consult with his campaign heads here amid reports of growing support for Sen. Estes Kefauver.

Paul Ziffren, California Democratic national committeeman and a Stevenson backer, said the June 5 California primary "is a do-or-die election" for the 1952 Democratic presidential candidate.

"Stevenson has got to win here," Ziffren said. "But there is no question that he will win."

Kefauver departed from International Airport here Tuesday night after a 5-day speech and hand-shaking tour of Southern California. He maintained the same breakneck pace here that supporters claim helped produce his upset victory over Stevenson in the Minnesota primary.

Stevenson will make what was described as a "major" local television address here tonight. Meetings with many of his campaign leaders also were scheduled to night and Thursday before he goes to San Francisco. He plans to leave for Illinois on Friday from San Francisco.

Secretary M'Kay Formally Submits His Resignation

WASHINGTON — Secretary of Interior Douglas M'Kay has formally submitted his resignation, freeing him for the political wars in Oregon.

McKay, a former GOP governor of Oregon, said he plans to quit about April 15 to get into the Oregon senatorial race. He will try to unseat Democratic Sen. Wayne L. Morse.

The secretary sent his resignation to the White House yesterday. He mentioned no specific date of resignation in the letter.

McKay told a group of Amherst College political science students at his office that he couldn't rest easy in retirement unless he at least tried to unseat Morse, a former Republican who bolted to the Democrats in 1952.

$1000 Wrist Watch Reported Lost

A lady's wrist watch, valued at more than $1000, was reported lost by Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Lindley, of Thunderbird Country Club yesterday.

Lindley told police the watch was missing from his wife's wrist after they left a local restaurant.

He said it is encrusted with 28 round diamonds and eight baguettes.

No old-fashioned "sulphur and molasses" for my family! Our Spring pepper-upper is Carnation Homogenized Vitamin D Milk. Creamy-tasting, fresh-from-contented-cows Carnation is the most delicious way I know to give the youngsters (and grown-ups, too) extra energy for the active outdoor life we're leading right now.

Protein-rich Carnation Homogenized Milk is a wonderful source of nourishment all by itself. And, it supplements the nourishment of other foods as well. It's an important part of every meal at our house, and a wholesome between-meal treat, too. I serve big, cool glasses of Carnation Homogenized Milk to the children after school along with snacks like these tempting:

Tuna Supreme Sandwiches (Makes about 4 servings)

1 cup well-drained canned tuna
2 teaspoons prepared horseradish
2 tablespoons sliced ripe olives
1 tablespoon diced cheese
Pepper to taste
1/4 cup Carnation Sour Cream

Blend all ingredients thoroughly. Spread on buttered bread or toast slices. Serve with tall glasses of Carnation Homogenized Milk.

Of course, everybody knows why fresh Carnation Homogenized Milk tastes so good. It's that wonderful cream-in-every-drop flavor. But, did you know that this great food supplies us with more than 274 different dietary ingredients? No wonder it's called "Nature's most nearly perfect food."

Better get your curtains washed before trout season opens and your husband discovers that your curtain stretcher is an ideal place to dry fishing line. Just strip the line between the top and bottom rows of nails.

COME INTO OUR PARLOR! When you visit Disneyland, don't miss Carnation's turn-of-the-century Ice Cream Parlor on Main Street.
